THE HEART & LUNGS OF THE CAPITAL

The Meadows, just a couple of minutes from Quatermile Two, provides acres of open parkland.

A place to relax and unwind - enjoy walking through the traffic free, tree lined pathways.

THE MEADOWS

For the more active, use it as part of your daily exercise routine or use the sports facilities including tennis courts, recreational sports pitches and even a croquet club.

Enjoy an outdoor break from the office, pick up a bite to eat or drink 'en route' from Peter's Yard, Soderberg, Starbucks or café Nero -all located within the Quatermile.

WELL CONNECTED

Edinburgh is a walkable city with continuing investment into high quality public transport, cycling networks and pedestrian friendly routes. Edinburgh therefore benefits from excellent connectivity locally, nationally and internationally thanks to a world class transport infrastructure.

WHERE PAST & FUTURE MEET

Quartermile Two forms part of the outstanding Quartermile development on Lauriston Place backing on to Edinburgh's famous Meadows.

The Old Town, Princes Street and Exchange District are all within a short walk. Furthermore, The University of Edinburgh has fully restored the Old Infirmary of Edinburgh which sits within the Quartermile development and is adjacent to Quartermile Two. This Category-A listed landmark is home to the Futures Institute and provides 21,300 sq.m of diverse accommodation. Uses include teaching and event space, lecture halls, meeting rooms and work hubs. The restoration also includes a new public piazza, generous multi-functional spaces for events, festivals and major lectures, outdoor spaces and a café.

£500BN

Edinburgh is the UK's largest regional financial centre with £500bn of assets under management. The city is home to over 30 operational banks and is headquarters to major financial institutions such as abrdn, Baillie Gifford, NatWest Group and Martin Currie.

16TH

In 2023 The University of Edinburgh was 16th out of 1,200 universities in the QS World University rankings. The growing university population is testament to the city as a prestigious, globally recognised place to study. Edinburgh's workforce is one of the most highly educated cities in the UK with 55% holding a degree or professional qualification.

96.5%

Edinburgh University is a fantastic source of graduate talent for employers in the city; indeed six months after graduating, 96.5% of its students are in employment or postgraduate study and it is one of the UK's leading universities targeted for recruitment.

1bn

Key technology companies such as Skyscanner, Rockstar North, Cirrus logic and Computershare have made Edinburgh their home. These companies, and many more, have made technology one of the fastest growing sectors with a GVA of £1bn.

9%

Edinburgh is one of the UK's fastest growing cities. From 2010 - 2020 the population of Edinburgh grew by 12.3%. The population is forecast to grow a further 9% by 2030.

IT'S ALL IN THE QUARTERMILE

Quartermile Two offers occupiers easy access to many of the services and amenities you need and expect. It's a great place to meet for breakfast, lunch or a drink or dinner after work.
